NARRATIVE

On 09/12/14 at about 1244 hours (all times approximate) I was dispatched to an unattended hit and run collision at 1920 S Lake Stevens Rd (Tom Thumb Grocery) in the city of Lake Stevens.

The reporting party, Jason D. Warth (DOB 1979), said he parked his white BMW at gas pump #1 and left his car to go inside the store. Warth said a woman, who said her name was Micki Marth, entered the store and asked if anyone owned the BMW outside because she just witnessed another car back into it and drive off.

Warth said Marth told him she saw a white, four door sedan drive backward into his BMW. Warth said Marth claimed the suspect looked at the BMW she struck but then drove away. Warth said Marth remembered part of the suspect's plate as AM_546. I took digital photographs of the victim's vehicle showing the place where the damage had occurred. These photographs were later placed on a compact disk and booked into the Lake Stevens Police Department evidence room as evidence to the fact.

Tom Thumb was only able to provide video footage from inside the store, nothing showing the vehicles. I attempted to locate the vehicle and its owner with the provided plate information through DAPS but was unsuccessful. I attempted to contact Marth twice through the phone number she provided to Warth but was unsuccessful.
